

Vanguard Bitesize Session:
The psychology of victim
blaming

This training will help those who are in support roles to to develop their understanding and awareness of what victim blaming and victim blaming language is and its prevalence even in today's culture. Delegates will have the opportunity to reflect on their own practice when working with others and also when working with other professionals within their own teams and organisations.

WHO IS THE TRAINING AIMED AT?

- Anyone who works with and supports children, young people and families across Coventry and Warwickshire. This can include practitioners and those staff within leadership teams

DATE & TIME

- Monday 12th February 2024 (11:00-11:45)
- Monday 10th June 2024 (11:00-11:45)
- Monday 11th November 2024 (11:00-11:45)

Delivered virtually – via Microsoft Teams

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- To understand what victim blaming is
- Learn about victim blaming language as a concept
- To unpack victim blaming language within our own practice
- To introduce the term adultification and what this means in relation to victim blaming
- To introduce some of the theories to victim blaming which help explain 'the why'
- To offer some alternative suggestions

To secure your place, please email
wstraining@warwickshire.gov.uk
(include; full name, service and training)