

GREAT MATE OR FAKE MATE?

A mate crime is when someone pretends to be friends with someone who has a disability and then takes advantage of them.

Do you regularly serve someone with a physical or learning disability?
Do you recognise the signs of mate crime?

Showing signs of poor mental health

Unexplained injuries?

Looking dirty or scruffy

Missing regular appointments?

Seems intimidated or threatened?

Short of money?

You can report a mate crime in confidence in any of the following ways:

- Call the police on 101 (in an emergency dial 999)
- Alternatively, information can be provided anonymously to the independent charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 11 or via www.crimestoppers-uk.org
- Use a third party reporting centre or a 'safe place'
- True Vision - you can report a hate crime through their website: www.report-it.org.uk
